Independent Auditors' Report

To the Board of Directors of PACT

Opinion

We have audited the accompanying financial statements of PACT (a nonprofit organization), which comprise the statements of financial position as of December 31, 2024 and 2023, and the related statements of activities, functional expenses, and cash flows for the years then ended, and the related notes to the financial statements.

In our opinion, the financial statements referred to above present fairly, in all material respects, the financial position of PACT as of December 31, 2024 and 2023, and the changes in its net assets and its cash flows for the years then ended in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America.

Basis for Opinion

We conducted our audits in accordance with auditing standards generally accepted in the United States of America. Our responsibilities under those standards are further described in the Auditor's Responsibilities for the Audit of the Financial Statements section of our report. We are required to be independent of PACT and to meet our other ethical responsibilities in accordance with the relevant ethical requirements relating to our audit. We believe that the audit evidence we have obtained is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our audit opinion.

Responsibilities of Management for the Financial Statements

Management is responsible for the preparation and fair presentation of the financial statements in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America, and for the design, implementation, and maintenance of internal control relevant to the preparation and fair presentation of financial statements that are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error.

In preparing the financial statements, management is required to evaluate whether there are conditions or events, considered in the aggregate, that raise substantial doubt about PACT's ability to continue as a going concern within one year after the date that the financial statements are available to be issued.

Auditors' Responsibilities for the Audit of the Financial Statements

Our objectives are to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial statements as a whole are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error, and to issue an auditor's report that includes our opinion. Reasonable assurance is a high level of assurance but is not absolute assurance and therefore is not a guarantee that an audit conducted in accordance with generally accepted auditing standards will always detect a material misstatement when it exists. The risk of not detecting a material misstatement resulting from fraud is higher than for one resulting from error, as fraud may involve collusion, forgery, intentional omissions, misrepresentations, or the override of internal control. Misstatements are considered material if there is a substantial likelihood that, individually or in the aggregate, they would influence the judgment made by a reasonable user based on the financial statements.

In performing an audit in accordance with generally accepted auditing standards, we:

- Exercise professional judgement and maintain professional skepticism throughout the audit.
- Identify and assess the risks of material misstatement of the financial statements, whether due to fraud or error, and design and perform audit procedures responsive to those risks. Such procedures include examining, on a test basis, evidence regarding the amounts and disclosures in the financial statements.
- Obtain an understanding of internal control relevant to the audit in order to design audit procedures that are appropriate in the circumstances, but not for the purpose of expressing an opinion on the effectiveness of PACT's internal control. Accordingly, no such opinion is expressed.
- Evaluate the appropriateness of accounting policies used and the reasonableness of significant accounting estimates made by management, as well as evaluate the overall presentation of the financial statements.
- Conclude whether, in our judgement, there are conditions or events, considered in the aggregate, that raise substantial doubt about PACT's ability to continue as a going concern for a reasonable period of time.

We are required to communicate with those charged with governance regarding, among other matters, the planned scope and timing of the audit, significant audit findings, and certain internal control related matters that we identified during the audit.

1. Organization

The Organization's primary exempt purpose is to develop, implement and administer programs that directly benefit both companion animals and their owners. PACT believes that providing knowledge, concentrating resources, coordinating efforts and inspiring the community is the best way to effectively improve the lives of companion animals and their human owners, so that both can live healthier and happier lives together for their mutual benefit.

They have provided assistance in fostering of animals for families and households who desperately want a safe haven for their animals during time of deployment or personal crisis.

2. Summary of Significant Accounting Policies

Basis of Accounting

The Organization's financial statements are prepared on the accrual basis of accounting in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles and provisions related to Financial Standards for Not-For-Profit Organizations. As such, the financial statements are presented on the basis of two net asset classifications; net assets without donor restrictions and net assets with donor restrictions.

Net assets without donor restrictions – Net assets not subject to donor-imposed stipulations.

Net assets with donor restrictions – Net assets subject to donor-imposed stipulations that expire by the passage of time or can be fulfilled or removed by actions pursuant to the stipulations. They include gifts restricted by donors for specific programs and other operating purposes. And net assets subject to donor-imposed stipulations that are required to be maintained permanently, thereby restricting the use of principal. Normally, donor-imposed stipulations allow part, or all of the income earned to be used currently.

The Organization reports gifts of cash and other assets as restricted support if designated as support for future periods. When a donor restriction expires, that is when a stipulated time restriction ends, or purpose restriction is accomplished; Net assets with donor restrictions are reclassified to net assets without donor restrictions and reported in the Statement of Activity as "Net Assets Released from Restrictions." Donor restricted contributions whose restrictions are met in the same reporting period, are reported as net assets without restrictions support. Contributions received and unconditional promises are measured at their fair values and are reported as an increase in net assets.

Contributions

Contributions, including unconditional promises to give, are recognized as revenues in the period pledged. Conditional promises to give are not recognized until they become unconditional, that is when the conditions on which they depend are substantially met. Contributions of assets other than cash are recorded at their estimated fair value as of the date of contribution. Contributions to be received after one year are discounted at an appropriate discount rate commensurate with the risk involved.

Revenue Recognition

The Organization receives its funding through fundraising and donor contributions. Contributions are recorded as revenue when the donor pledges the amount. Due to the nature of the donations, the revenues do not have performance obligations in relation to the above ASC 606 "Revenue from Contracts with Customers". Donations are not an exchange transaction and do not fall under the ASC 606 Accounting Policy.

Allowance for Credit Losses

When the company records customer receivables, contract assets, and financing receivables arising from revenue transactions, the company records an allowance for credit losses for the current expected credit losses (CECL) inherent in the asset over its expected life. The allowance for credit losses is a valuation account deducted from the amortized cost basis of the assets to present their net carrying value at the amount expected to be collected. Each period the allowance for credit losses is adjusted through earnings to reflect expected credit losses over the remaining lives of the assets. The company evaluates debt securities with unrealized losses to determine whether any of the losses arise from concerns about the issuer's credit or the underlying collateral and record an allowance for credit losses, if required.

Donated Services

Donated services are recognized as contributions if the services (1) create or enhance non-financial assets or (2) require specialized skills, are performed by people with those skills and would otherwise be purchased by the Organization. Volunteers also provide services that are not recognized as contributions in the financial statements since the recognition criteria were not met.

Cash and Cash Equivalents

Cash and cash equivalents include all cash and highly liquid investments with maturity dates of less than three months. The carrying value of cash and cash equivalents approximates fair value because of the short maturities of those financial statements.

Concentration of Credit Risk

For the years ended December 31, 2024 and 2023, respectively, approximately 30% and 61% of contribution revenue can be attributed to one contributor. The Organization's bank accounts are maintained at a reputable financial institution with federal insurance coverage, which generally covers deposits up to $250,000.

Property and Equipment

Property and equipment are carried at cost less depreciation to date. Donated property used by the organization is recorded at fair value on the date contributed. Depreciation expense was $569 and $1,552 in 2024 and 2023 respectively. The useful life of property and equipment for purposes of computing depreciation is five years.

Impairment of Long-Lived Assets

The Organization reviews its property and equipment for Impairment whenever events or changes in circumstances indicate that the carrying amount of an asset may not be recoverable. The Organization assesses recoverability by comparing the estimates undiscounted cash flows associated with the related asset or group of assets against their respective carrying amounts. The amount of impairment, if any, is calculated based on the excess of the carrying amount over the fair value of those assets.

Fair Value Measurement

Valuation techniques used in fair value measurements need to maximize the use of observable inputs and minimize the use of unobservable inputs. A valuation method may produce a fair value measurement that may not be indicative of net realizable value or reflective of future fair values. Furthermore, although the Organization believes its valuation methods are appropriate and consistent with those used by other market participants, the use of different methodologies or assumptions could result in different fair value measurements at the reporting date. Assets and liabilities measured at fair value are categorized into one of three different levels depending on the observability of the inputs employed in their measurement. Level 1 inputs are quoted prices in active markets for identical assets or liabilities. Level 2 inputs are observable inputs other than quoted prices included within Level 1 for the asset or liability, either directly or indirectly through market-corroborated inputs. Level 3 inputs are unobservable inputs for the asset or liability, including the Organization's own assumptions in determining the fair value of the assets or liabilities.

Functional Expenses

The Organization allocates expenses on a functional basis among its program and supporting services. Expenses that can be identified with a specific program or supporting services are charged directly. Other expenses that are common to several functions are allocated based on various statistical bases.

Income Taxes and Tax – Exempt Status

No provisions are made for federal and state income taxes. The Organization is recognized by the Internal Revenue Service as a not-for-profit corporation as described in Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code (IRC) and is exempt from federal income taxes. The Organization is a Pennsylvania non-profit and therefore is exempt from state corporate taxes.

FASB ASC 740-10-65-1 requires financial statement recognition of the impact of a tax position, if that position is more likely than not to be sustained on examination, based on the technical merits of the position. The benefit is calculated as the largest amount that is more than 50 percent likely to be realized upon resolution of the benefit. The Organization has evaluated its tax positions and believes all could be sustained upon examination. With few exceptions, the Organization is no longer subject to income tax examinations by federal authorities for years before 2021.

Use of Estimates

The preparation of financial statements in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of assets and liabilities and disclosure of contingent assets and liabilities at the date of the financial statements and the reported amounts of revenues and expenses during the reporting period. Actual results could differ from those estimates.

Subsequent Events

The Organization has evaluated subsequent events through September 15, 2025, which is the date the financial statements were available to be issued.
